

Business

Big City Advantages. Small Town Charm.

The City of Geneva, Located in the heart of New York's bustling Finger Lakes Region is your premier destination for establishing or expanding your business. Whether you're a self-starting entrepreneur, ready to hang your first shingle; or an innovative manufacturer seeking the best spot for your global expansion, the City of Geneva has the right site, ready access to the world's largest markets, a skilled workforce, and an aggressive local government; ready to provide valuable incentives to propel your plans forward.